

Preliminary Agenda

24th and 25th of November

Venue: European Institute of Oncology. Milan. Italy

24th of November

Morning (Chair Ferrucci)

9.00-9.30

- S. Gandini (Italy): Epidemiology, risk factors and vitamin D.

9.30-10.00

- P.A. Philipsen (Denmark): UV induced vitamin D status and DNA damage

10.00-10.30

- A. Webb (UK)/L. Rhodes (UK): How much UV for how much Vitamin D

10.30-11.00

- R. Greinert (Germany): European Code against Cancer, 4th Revision ("UV-recommendations")

Coffee break: 11.00-11.30

11.30-12.00

-R. Zanetti /S. Rosso (Italy): Melanoma & Parkinson's disease: a complex link and a study project.

12.00-12.30

- S. Raimondi (Italy): MCR1, skin cancer phenotypic characteristics: an update from the M-SKIP project

LUNCH : 12.30-14.00

24th of November

Afternoon (Chair Tosti)

14.00-14.30

- M. Boniol (France): Risks of Sunbed use

14.30-15.00

- L.T. Nilsen (Norway): Measurements of UV-exposures in sunbeds

15.00-15.30

- S. Schneider (Germany): Sunbed use, user characteristics and vitamin D substitution as motivation for artificial tanning: results from a German population-based study.

Coffee break 15.30-16.00

16.00-16.30

- M. Khazova (UK): Spectral characteristics of modern sunbeds

16.30-17.00

- J.F. Dore (France): Sun bed regulations/laws/decretes

17.00-18.00

DISKUSSION

Workshop Dinner 19.00- 23.00

25th of November

Morning (Chair Stanganelli)

9.00-9.30

- M. Scatolini (Italy): UV exposure and specific DNA damages in a cohort of cutaneous melanoma patients

9.30-10.00

- I. Stanganelli/S. Magi (Italy): "Save the skin" primary prevention at secondary schools

10.00-10.30

- V. De Giorgi (Italy): Secondary prevention - self detection

Coffee break 10.30-11.00

11.00-11.30

- L. Sacchetto (Italy): Measuring thin melanoma in cancer registries

11.30-12.00

- E. W. Breitbart (Germany): Results from the German Skin Cancer Screening

12.00-13.00

Discussion

25th of November

Afternoon : MelaViD Investigator meeting